REMARKS – General

By the above amendment, the applicant has rewritten all the claims to define the invention more particularly and distinctly so as to overcome the technical 5 rejections and define the invention patentably over the prior art.

Claim Rejections Under 35 USC § 112 have been overcome

The applicant has amended claim 18-20 to avoid Rejections Under 35 USC §
10 112 as pointed out by last OA. Accordingly applicant submits that the new claims do comply with § 112 and therefore requests withdrawal of these rejections.

Claim Objections have been overcome

15

The applicant has amended claim 18 to avoid Claim Rejection as pointed out by last OA. Accordingly the applicant requests withdrawal of this objection.

Conclusion

For all of the above reasons, the applicant submits that the claims are now in proper form, and that the claims all define patentably over the prior art. Therefore he submits that this application is now in condition for allowance, which action he respectfully solicits.

Conditional Request For Constructive Assistance

Applicant has amended the specification and claims of this application so that they are proper, definite, and define novel structure which is also unobvious. If, for any reason this application is not believed to be in full condition of allowance, Applicant respectfully request the constructive assistance and suggestions of the Examiner pursuant to M.P.E.P. § 2173.02 and § 707.07(j) in order that the undersigned can place this applicant in allowable condition as soon as possible and without the need for further proceedings.

Very respectfully,
